

B.C. COUNTRY MUSIC ASSOCIATION

RULES FOR ELIGIBILITY AND GUIDELINES FOR SUBMISSIONS

Part 1: Eligibility

1A) The eligibility period is from August 1st, through to July 31st, of the following year. “Released” is defined as “made available to radio Stations throughout BC for airplay” In each category there is a BC resident requirement, meaning that the nominees must live in BC and have resided in BC for at least any of a total of six months prior to July 31st of the current year.

1B) Nominees have the right, should they so desire, to have their name eliminated from any particular category other than in the single and Socan songwriter of the year categories. If there are duplicate nominees in those Categories, i.e. the same artist is nominated for more than one song or if the same songwriter(s) and same Artist are duplicate nominees, the nominee with the most suggestions will be left in the category.

1C) There must be three (3) nominees in any particular category in order for that category to remain in that current year. Where there are fewer than the minimum require submissions, they will be automatically eligible in the same category for the following year. The BCCMA’s intent is to present five (5) nominations in each category.

1D) If a nominee wins the same All Star Band Award five (5) consecutive years in a row, he or she will be ineligible to be nominated for 1 year for that category.

1E) Only paid members can nominate members, be nominated, win and vote for BCCMA Awards. The balloting process is administered and managed by the BCCMA Board, ensuring that all nominees in each category are members in good standing.

1F) Voting rules and awards are subject to change at the discretion of the BCCMA Board of Directors.
